

Job Opportunity Announcement
Telephone Counseling Attorney
West Chicago, IL

Prairie State Legal Services is a not-for-profit legal aid organization that provides civil legal aid services to the poor, elderly, and people with disabilities. Prairie State has 11 offices serving 36 counties throughout northern and central Illinois. Prairie State focuses services on legal problems that impact the ability of our clients to meet their basic human needs, including physical safety, access to healthcare, adequate housing, and similar needs. It is the only legal aid organization in the majority of its service area. Annually, PSLS handles over 22,000 applications for legal help and serves over 16,000 clients, with primary intake and legal advice services centralized via our telephone counseling service. We pride ourselves on fostering a work environment that is motivating, collaborative, and fun, with plenty of opportunities for professional growth. More information is available on our website at www.pslegal.org

The Telephone Counseling Service includes non-attorney intake specialists and attorneys who qualify applicants for service and provide legal advice by phone on a variety of civil legal issues, including housing, family, public benefits, and education and consumer law. The Telephone Counseling Attorney will interview clients, assess legal issues, and provide advice to clients by phone only. The attorneys also refer clients for additional service within PSLS where resources permit and outside of PSLS as appropriate. Telephone Counseling Service staff are primarily working remotely. Candidates for this position must have the ability to be present at office locations for periodic training and meetings.

Responsibilities

Among other duties as assigned, the Telephone Counseling Attorney will:

- Interview and advise clients calling from throughout our service area who are in need of assistance with diverse legal issues
- Evaluate clients' legal issue, conduct research while the caller is on the telephone, and provide legal advice relevant to the clients' needs
- Exhibit a high level of personal energy, organization, and commitment to the position and the PSLS mission
