

Job Posting – Staff Attorney

The Immigration Project: Staff Attorney

The Immigration Project is seeking a full-time Staff Attorney to lead our team in zealous advocacy efforts through participation in pro se workshops throughout the State of Illinois. The Staff Attorney is primarily responsible for representing The Immigration Project in pro se matters at mass workshops by traveling and collaborating with community partners, grassroots organizations, and other legal aids throughout Illinois. The Staff Attorney may also manage a small caseload through direct representation of casework across various immigration-based subjects with a focus on humanitarian, family-based, and naturalization immigration issues.

The ideal candidate will have a proven ability to advocate for a diverse set of clients on immigration matters. They will be committed to filing for immigration relief in a fast-paced environment and able to commit to regular travel to lead workshops as a part of this new, innovative collaborative, initiated by the State of Illinois to streamline processing of applications. They will also be willing to participate in limited representation and workshop model efforts to address the increased need for new arrivals. This position is an excellent opportunity to engage with policymakers, governmental organizations, other nonprofits and advocacy groups to bring about real change in the lives of our clients.

Company Overview

The Immigration Project is a dynamic immigration legal aid organization located in Normal, Illinois, with satellite offices in Champaign, Illinois and Springfield, Illinois. The agency is the largest non-profit immigration legal services located in downstate Illinois with immigration attorneys on staff and serves clients in 86 counties across central and southern Illinois. We understand the importance of immigration for our communities and believe in equal access to fairness and justice. Our goal is to advocate with, not for, our clients and walk alongside them through the legal process as they make the best decisions for their lives. The Immigration Project not only supports those they serve, but the team by promoting a healthy work-life balance as evidenced by our generous paid time off policies, flexible hours to account for travel in a given work week, and a hybrid work style when applicable.
